MACLAGAN MANUSCRIPTS

SUPERNATURAL: Will o the Wisp

From Isobel MacCalman, Conispie, Islay (anonymous)

6226

Speaking of supernatural lights and old woman - a native of the island of Islay said:

(translated from Gaelic)

"There is a light yonder that is sometimes seen about the time of the new year. The name they have on it is Willie Wisp. It is not carried by any person, but it just comes to lead people astray. It is about the new year it is seen of the most part.
